Sayvionne McCullough -- Vocalist

"Girl Crush" by Little Big Town

Since I was younger, I've dreamt of singing and performing in front of crowds hoping to make a positive impact on younger audience. Now, I'm getting ready for college at Lewis and Clark State College to become a music teacher for grades k through 12. I've always loved the idea that I can teach those that are really encourage and moved by the thought of music, and as a teacher, I will want to inspire them. To be the first major impact on a child's life when it comes to music, anything is possible no matter how many obstacles are in the way. My goal is I want to be the first to show them that.

Aspen Garlitz -- Vocalist

Hello--my name is Aspen Garlitz. I love anything that comes to art and the outdoors. I am currently a junior in high school and have been in choir for most of my schooling. I've been singing and drawing ever since I was a little girl, although most people wouldn't guess--since I'm often pretty shy about singing in front of people. I thought I should enter this competition, and with enough encouragement from family and friends, I tried out. I hope that I, and everyone else in the competition, does well.
